large audience was present, and all enjoyed the interesting programme. The Christopher Columbus Orchestra opened the evening. Messrs. Wayburn and Boschen made a great hit with some songs and sayings. They were accompanied by Mr. Nathan Nelson. The clubswinging of Mr. John Martin was very entertaining. He is a pupil of J. M. Sales. Miss Annie Tremer sang two beautiful songs, accompanied by Professor C. F. Mutter. The recitation of Mr. Moses Sycle deserves mention. Mr. Cannon Eckles also deserves great praise for his great baton juggling. Mr. George Butler as Professor O. H. Shelton was the speaker of the house. He was much admired with his funny ways. Messrs. Boschen, Faldner, and Schopf, with their "Fun in the Photograph Gallery," were very amusing. Mr. Clifton East, in his latest songs and sayings, was accompanied by Miss Edner East. Mr. D. H. Critic, Comes Under the Lyceum.

The Executive Committee of the Richof entertainments, have sought to give as great a variety as possible. The lovers of art will be especially interested in the lecture of the distinguished artist, critic, and savant, Mr. Louis Faran, on next Thursday night, The subject will be, "The National Gallery, London, Italian School."

It is one of three celebrated lectures

It is one of three celebrated lectures that Mr. Fagan has on the representative galleries of Europe. It will be beautifully illustrated with stereopticon views. Mr. Fagan will not only show what the galleries contain, but will present the characteristics of great schools of painting as well. His lectures are in no sense merely "gotten up" for the public. They are the result of the study of a lifetime, and of a lifetime spent at the very source of knowledge. He is author of over fifteen authoritative works on engraving. He is an artist and a linguist, and his abilities have been generally recognized.

He is an artist and a inguist, and his abilities have been generally recognized, not only in Europe, but in America. He is frequently called upon to address the learned societies in Great Britain and in this country.

Mr. Fagan's name is widely known in the art circles of the world. Long connected with the Department of Prints and Drawings in the British Museum, he has had unequalled opportunities for enriching his knowledge in all art matters. He has won high distinction by his lectures, delivered before various learned sociedelivered before various learned socie-ties, as well as by his purely artistic and literary work. In his own field he stands pre-eminent. The lectures that he will deliver are of a "popular" order, in the very best sense of that word. They are upon subjects that make special appeal to Americans, and they will have ad-mirable and unique illustrations.

GOING TO ALASKA'S GOLD-FIELDS. Expedition Is Being Organized Here,

Many Have Already Subscribed. Those who are interested in the expe city for the gold-fields of Alaska held a meeting in the assembly-room of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, and discussed the forma tion of the Virginia-Alaska Gold-Mining Company, a charter to which was granted on the 14th of December last. There were present about forty gentle-men, amoung them a number of promisubscribed.

Judge Flournoy is now in correspondence with fifty or sixty persons who desire to join the expedition, and as soon as a sufficient number of shares are taken the company will be organized on a firm basis. The subscription-book is now open at the office of Judge Flournoy, Room 56, Chamber of Commerce.

It is proposed to start for Alaska by the 15th of March.

Judge B. R. Wellford granted permission to the Union Brokerage Company, of this city, to amend section 3 of its charter, so as to read as follows:

"The capital stock shall not be less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, to be divided into shares of $4 each; and it is further ordered that said company is authorized to reduce the capital stock to the amount of $2,000.

The case of Mary Reid, the fortuncteller, was the only one heard in the Hustings Court yesterday. The evidence has all been heard, and instructions argued, and the case will probably be given to the jury to-morrow morning, unless the arguments are very lengthy. The panel was adjourned over Sunday and not locked up.

In the Law and Equity Court, in the case of Gatewood against the city of Richmond, the jury falled to agree, and was discharged.

The Daughters' Aunual Ten.

The Daughters' Annual Tea.

The annual tea to be given by the Richmond Chapter of the Grand Division of Virginia, United Daughters of the Confederacy, promises to be a most pleasant affair. This tea is a social function, its object being to bring together all members of this grand society, who are doing so much to perpetuate the glorious story of the war. All visiting and resident United Daughters of the Confederacy are most cordially invited. The Reception Committee will be composed of the officers of the Richmond Chapter, assisted by Mrs. General Fitzhugh Lee. The tea will take place at Lee Camp Hall on Thursday, 27th instant, from 5 to 7 P. M. Death of Mr. Norman.

Mr. John H. Norman died at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. H. A. Separk, No. 228 east Main street, Friday at 5:20 A. M., in the 53d year of his age. The deceased conducted a confectionery business in this city for many years. His death was not unexpected, as he had been sick for many months.

Mr. Norman was unmarried, and leaves two sisters—Mrs. R. G. Smither and Mrs. H. A. Separk. He was a brother of the late George W. Norman.

To Present The Little Tycoon. On Tuesday evening the first rehearsal for the production daring Easter week of "The Little Tycoon" by local talent, for the benefit of the Elks' charity fund. will be held at the Elks' Home, corner of Eleventh and Marshall streets. Rehearsals will be held regularly every Tuesday and Thursday evenings until the first performance of the opera. The chorus will number over fifty voices, and the Elks are desirous of having all the local talent included in the company.

this,
And I wouldn't have felt so badly;
But I must confess it's a drop from bliss
And the news affects me sadly.
I've bought her books, but it seems that they
Could not in her inspire
An answering thought—they've faded away. And I'm only a candy-buyer.

Think of the plays we've seen—ah, me!
Think of the many hours
I've spent in writing the lines that she Has read when I've shipped her flowers
But flowers and plays and poems convey
But sentiments that tire,
Beneath all this I'm the commonest clay,
And only a candy-buyer. Oh! the wittlest things I've said were those

Two said to this fair maiden,
And the clothes I wore were my very best clothes,
As I talked with a heart love-laden.
That she loves me not isn't misery,
But it sets my heart on fire
To know through it all she's thought of me
As only a candy-buyer. DEPARTURE OF STEAMERS
